Matthew 7:23 (KJV)

These words were not addressed to people who openly rejected the existence of God. Jesus was describing people who called Him Lord and even claimed to have performed mighty works in His name.

Today, we will examine four spiritual dangers that can leave people unprepared for the return of our Lord.
- Rainin, jenaj etale emen wãwein ko im rekauwõtata ñan mour ko ad im renaj komman bwe jen jab mol in bojak ñan jeblak tok eo an ad IROIJ.

Church leaders have an important biblical responsibility to teach, shepherd, and guide God's people. But no pastor, preacher, prophet, or church officer should take the place of Jesus Christ.

Many Christians believe Jesus will return. But believing that Christ will return is not the same as living in readiness for His return.
Jesus repeatedly instructed His followers to remain watchful.

Jesus concluded:
“Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.” —
- “Kanuij kejbaroke, bwe kom jaje ran eo im awa eo.”
Matthew 25:13 (KJV)
The lesson is not to live in fear of tomorrow but to live faithfully today.
