For the grown-ups

Welcome to Sandy Meadows Farms! This pack brings a little farm fun to your home and opens a conversation about courage, patience, and kindness.

Make it a moment together

Ask: What does nervous feel like? What helps you feel ready? How can we be kind when someone else needs more time?

At a real farm, ask the animal's owner before approaching or offering food. Let a grown-up guide the visit and give animals space.

Keep the story going

Read Meg and the Brave Little Visitor by Mary Cron, a Sandy Meadows Farms story about a little visitor finding courage around the goats.
