MEY MAIKHO
DEVELOPMENT WELFARE TRUST

FOR THE DESPERATE

ACTIVITIES & EVENTS

2023 – 2025

A chronological, website-ready compilation of the Trust’s documented community, environmental, educational, health and welfare activities.

Prepared for website publication

About this compilation

This document presents the activities in chronological order using event descriptions and original photographs or banners supplied in the source materials. No AI-generated or stock photographs have been added. Where a participation figure or other detail was not available in the source records, it has not been invented.

Activity sequence

• 24 May 2023 — Tree Plantation Drive

• 15 November 2023 — Campus Cleanliness Drive

• 5 June 2024 — World Environment Day – Tree Plantation Drive

• 28 October 2024 — Orthodontic and Dental Awareness Programme

• 29 August 2025 — Expert Lecture: Start-up Businesses for Early Stage Entrepreneurs

• 30 September 2025 — One-Day Seminar on Life Skills

• 6 December 2025 — Clothing Drive – “Let Us Christmas, Let Us Share”

Website publishing note: descriptions can be used as main article copy. Captions may be used as photo captions or as starting points for image alt text. Please verify details against the Trust’s records before publication.

24 May 2023

Tree Plantation Drive

Location: Phoriduh, Tungjoy Village, Paomata Sub-Division, Senapati District, Manipur

Organiser / collaboration: Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust

Participants	28 villagers
Trees planted	550

Website description

Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust carried out a Tree Plantation Drive on 24 May 2023 at Phoriduh, Tungjoy Village, Paomata Sub-Division, Senapati District, Manipur. Twenty-eight villagers participated and 550 trees were planted. The drive was undertaken to protect the environment, conserve water, maintain clean air, reduce soil erosion, prevent water pollution and provide habitat for wildlife.

Objectives / programme focus

• Environmental protection and ecological balance

• Water conservation and cleaner air

• Reducing soil erosion and preventing water pollution

• Providing natural habitat for wildlife

Original event photographs

Villagers at the Tree Plantation Drive, 24 May 2023.

Community members taking part in plantation work.

Plantation activity at the project site.

15 November 2023

Campus Cleanliness Drive

Location: St. Joseph University, Chümoukedima, Nagaland

Organiser / collaboration: Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust, in collaboration with the Department of Management, St. Joseph University

Participants	33 Management students

Website description

Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust, in collaboration with the Department of Management, St. Joseph University, Chümoukedima, conducted a Cleanliness Drive on the university campus on 15 November 2023. The initiative combined a campus cleanliness activity with an awareness programme, engaging 33 Management students. The programme encouraged students to take an active role in keeping shared spaces clean and to practise environmental responsibility in everyday life.

Objectives / programme focus

• Promoting cleanliness and responsible waste disposal

• Building environmental awareness among students

• Encouraging student participation in community-oriented activities

Original event photographs

Management students participating in the campus cleanliness initiative.

Participants with the official Cleanliness Drive banner.

5 June 2024

World Environment Day – Tree Plantation Drive

Location: Ngapuh, Tungjoy Village, Senapati District, Manipur

Organiser / collaboration: Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust, in collaboration with Phoenix Club, Visual Perception, Eco Club, Brothers in Arms and Thrawchhiinya Threylou Ralya (TTR)

Participants	32 individuals
Trees planted	300

Website description

Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust, in collaboration with Phoenix Club, Visual Perception, Eco Club, Brothers in Arms and Thrawchhiinya Threylou Ralya (TTR), conducted a Tree Plantation Drive at Ngapuh, Tungjoy Village, on 5 June 2024 to mark World Environment Day. Guided by the theme “Together, We Can Plant, Nurture and Grow a Better Tomorrow,” 32 individuals came together and planted 300 trees. The participating youth affirmed their commitment to take necessary care of and nurture the planted trees.

Objectives / programme focus

• Celebrating World Environment Day through community action

• Encouraging environmental awareness and tree plantation

• Promoting shared responsibility for nurturing planted trees

Original event photographs

Original World Environment Day 2024 campaign banner.

Participants at the plantation drive.

Youth volunteers working at the plantation site.

28 October 2024

Orthodontic and Dental Awareness Programme

Location: St. Joseph University, Chümoukedima, Nagaland

Organiser / collaboration: Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust

Resource persons	Dr. Naomi Rio Zhimomi and Dr. Arihant Jain

Website description

Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust conducted an orthodontic and dental awareness programme at St. Joseph University, Chümoukedima, on 28 October 2024. The programme focused on oral hygiene, preventive dental care, the importance of regular dental check-ups and awareness of orthodontic treatment options. It aimed to help participants better understand the importance of caring for their oral health.

Objectives / programme focus

• Preventive oral hygiene and dental care

• Importance of regular dental check-ups

• Awareness of orthodontic treatment options

Original event photographs

Resource person addressing participants at St. Joseph University, 28 October 2024.

Original event photograph from the university programme.

29 August 2025

Expert Lecture: Start-up Businesses for Early Stage Entrepreneurs

Location: Seminar Hall, St. Joseph University, Chümoukedima, Nagaland

Organiser / collaboration: Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust, in collaboration with the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) and Department of English, St. Joseph University

Time	9:30 AM
Resource person	Dr. Akha Khou Stephen

Website description

Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust, in collaboration with the Department of English and the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) of St. Joseph University, Chümoukedima, organised an expert lecture titled "Start-up Businesses for Early Stage Entrepreneurs" on 29 August 2025. The programme provided students and research scholars with insights into the fundamentals of building start-ups, the challenges faced by early-stage entrepreneurs and approaches to sustainable business growth.

Objectives / programme focus

• Understanding start-up fundamentals and entrepreneurship

• Developing business ideas and business models

• Recognising early-stage challenges and practical solutions

• Encouraging innovation, calculated risk-taking and entrepreneurial thinking

Original event photographs

Participants and organisers with the seminar banner.

Dr. Akha Khou Stephen delivering the expert lecture.

Original programme poster.

30 September 2025

One-Day Seminar on Life Skills

Location: Mt. Pisgah College, Senapati District, Manipur

Organiser / collaboration: Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust, in collaboration with Mt. Pisgah College

Participants	Approximately 30 final-year BA English and Economics students
Resource person	Dr. A. Khou

Website description

Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust, in collaboration with Mt. Pisgah College, conducted a one-day seminar on “Life Skills” on 30 September 2025. Approximately 30 final-year BA English and Economics students attended. Resource person Dr. A. Khou highlighted the importance of thinking skills, social skills, emotional skills and practical skills in preparing young people to face the competitive world. The seminar concluded with an interactive question-and-answer session and meaningful discussions.

Objectives / programme focus

• Thinking skills: critical thinking, problem-solving and decision-making

• Social skills: communication and interpersonal relationships

• Emotional skills: understanding and managing emotions

• Practical skills: applying knowledge to everyday challenges

Original event photographs

Students and organisers with the seminar banner.

Dr. A. Khou interacting with students.

Students attending the Life Skills seminar.

Group photograph after the programme.

6 December 2025

Clothing Drive – “Let Us Christmas, Let Us Share”

Location: Dimapur, Nagaland

Organiser / collaboration: Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust

Volunteers	8 young volunteers
Beneficiaries	Low-income families and homeless individuals

Website description

On 6 December 2025, Mey Maikho Development Welfare Trust organised a Clothing Drive in Dimapur, Nagaland, under the theme “Let Us Christmas, Let Us Share”. Clothes collected through donations—including shirts, trousers, children’s wear and blankets—were distributed to low-income families and homeless individuals. The initiative aimed to provide warmth and comfort during the winter season while helping reduce the financial burden on vulnerable families. Eight young volunteers participated in the collection and distribution effort.

Objectives / programme focus

• Providing warm clothing and blankets during winter

• Supporting low-income families and homeless individuals

• Encouraging generosity, compassion and community participation

Original event photographs

Volunteers distributing warm clothing near K.I. Sethi Market Complex, Dimapur — 6 December 2025.

Young volunteers who supported the Clothing Drive.

Original Clothing Drive event poster.