RKM RON KING MINISTRIES

Have you ever found yourself saying any of these things?

- There has to be more to life but I have no idea where to find it.
- I feel as though I have no direction in life. I'm like a ship without a rudder.
- I feel so empty inside. Nothing I do seems to bring me any sense of fulfillment.

What you are going to get?

☞ You're going to discover that it was never God's plan for you to be a compass without the needle.

- As you begin to unlock the 7 keys you will say goodbye to feelings of emptiness.
- You will become purposeful about seeking out God's highest design for your life.
- Feelings of sadness will be replaced by renewed passion for life.

Why Should You Listen To Me?

Because I've been where you are! I have felt the things you are feeling. I was living a life of emptiness, always searching but never finding! I knew there had to be more!

Destiny's Design was not written by me, it is very much a story that the Lord placed into my heart and I understood that it had been given for the purpose of sharing it with others.

As you begin to apply the 7 keys to your life, they will unlock new doors and you will begin to have greater clarity as you discover who it is you have been created to be.

You will begin to notice clues that have been given to help provide you with direction for the road ahead and you will experience a sense of inner fulfillment that you have long been hoping to discover.

As you begin to apply these 7 Keys to your life, you'll start to feel refreshed and renewed as though new life has begun to flow. Because it has.

And the journey is only just beginning!

7 Keys To Discovering Your Destiny

1. Born to Be Blessed

It was God's purpose from the outset to bless all His children.

He tells us in His word, that before ever you were born, He knew you and that He has an amazing plan for your life.

> Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart. (Jer 1:5)

In order to begin to walk into all He has planned for your life, you must first decide that the word of God regarding your Destiny is true.

You must decide that you believe that your Destiny does not belong in your hands.

Blessing comes as we recognize our need to walk with the Lord. It is His desire to show you the way and He has made provision for each one of us to discover His very best Design for our lives.

There is a wonderful story in the Old testament where Israel is about to enter into the promised land. They are preparing to cross over the river Jordan when Joshua declares:

> When you see the ark of the covenant you are to move... Then you will know which way to go since you have never been this way before. (Josh 3:3,4)

The Ark of the Covenant represented God's presence for Israel.

It was forever God's plan that His children should learn to fix their eyes on Him in order to walk in the fulness of their Destiny.

Israel's journey provides us with a wonderful glimpse of God's plan for each of our lives.

Without the Lord we have no idea where to turn because like Israel we too have never been this way before.

Destiny's Design *was always, that we would discover God's best for us as we learn to walk hand in hand with Him.

2. Blessed for a Purpose

In the kingdom of God, to be blessed is not something that God does so that we will end up with the biggest bank account or the biggest house or the latest model Bentley.

Scripture is very clear. The blessings of God come in order that we can bring Glory to God. To be blessed requires a heart that is selfless. That is not to say that as we serve His purpose that the Lord won't bless us. He certainly will, however His word provides us with a divine order:

> Seek first the kingdom and all else shall be added unto us. (Matt. 6:33)

I personally know and respect many wealthy Christian entrepreneurs whose entire lives are given over to bringing glory to God first and foremost.

There is nothing wrong with making a lot of money, but we need to understand that fulfilling our Destiny must always be for the purpose of bringing blessing and Glory to God first, and not the other way around.

3. Destiny's Design

Everybody has a Destiny but not everyone will find it. Discovering your God given Destiny requires 'a purposeful approach' and that's what Destiny's Design has been created to provide.

It has taken me years to arrive at the place where I know that I am walking according to God's purpose for my life. Does that mean that I have not been walking in my Destiny up until now? Of course not. We read in Paul's letter to the Romans that:

> All things work together for good for those who love God and are called according to his purposes. (Rom. 8:28)

There is a story told about a special room in heaven that has a beautiful red door just waiting for God's children to open. The room is full of gifts, all beautifully wrapped, just waiting to be claimed. The sad part of the story is that many of the gifts will never be opened. While all of God's gifts are freely given, there are some gifts that we need to ask to receive before they will be given.

Wisdom is one of those gifts. In 1 Corinthians 14:1 we read that we are to earnestly pursue, seek after, earnestly desire spiritual gifts and there are so many other gifts, other than those mentioned in this passage, that God is just waiting for us to claim.

Destiny's Design has been fashioned to help you to go in search of all the wonderful gifts that God has prepared for you so that you can begin to experience the fullness of the purposes the Lord has planned for your life.

4. Key in on the Clues

God does not leave us uninformed about His purposes, however, in His word He has told us that there are those who will have eyes to see and ears to hear.

In spiritual terms having eyes to see and ears to hear requires that we possess the desire to receive greater wisdom and understanding.

God gives His children clues about His design for our future. Often however it really helps to have a coach or a mentor to help us to recognize the signs that we will encounter along the way. We need to learn how to develop the spiritual skill sets necessary to fully explore all the Lord wants us to discover and it was for that reason that God provided the Priest Eli to help to train young Samuel.

Samuel needed Eli's wise counsel because without the wise priest, Samuel would not have known how to recognize the voice of God.

5. Keep Your Eyes Fixed on the Prize

In life it can be so easy to lose focus. Waiting around for answers can often seem counter intuitive.

Another reason why aligning yourself with a spiritual coach can be of benefit, is that there are times when it helps to have another to help you stay focused.

Paul told us that daily:

> He presses on toward the goal to win the prize. (Phil 3:14)

Sometimes however pressing on towards the goal is not the easiest thing to do and that's why athletes use a coach because sometimes the going gets tough and at times like that it's the coach's role to motivate and encourage the athlete and to spur him/her on.

The journey through life is no different. Nobody said it would be easy and often it helps to have another in your corner to help you to stay focused and  to help you keep your eyes on the prize.

6. Kick Doubt to the Curb

With delay comes doubt and with doubt can also come the inclination to allow the dream to die.

It is little wonder that those who reach the very pinnacle of success in this life are few and far between. The reality is that the road toward discovering the fullness of one's Destiny is the road less travelled. It is a road that requires its travellers to get up off the ground more times than they ever want to count.

How many successful businesspeople experience bankruptcy along the way? How many athletes fail to hit the mark before they finally achieve their goal? Kicking doubt to the curb is one of the most important skills successful people have to master before they can occupy the place of their dreams.

7. The Gift is for Today

Destiny is given as a gift just waiting to be discovered. Many believe that the goodness of God only relates to the eternal prize and that we have no right to expect anything of real value in this life.

There is however an abundance of scriptures that would absolutely refute such incorrect theology. My favourite is found among the words of King David when he declared:

> I remain confident of this: I will see the goodness of God in the land of the living. (Psalm 27:13)

Your Destiny has been designed so that you can reach out and take it. The goodness of God was planned to be showered upon you today and not just when you step into eternity however we have to know the steps to take in order to step in its fullness.
